CONGRESS.

The Committee appointed by the House of Representatives, to investigate the affairs of the BANK OF THE UNITED STATES have made a very full and detailed report on this subject, it occupying eight columns in the National Intelligencer.—The Committee conclude with the opinion, "that the provisions of the charter of the Bank of the United States have been violated in the following instances.

I. In purchasing two millions of public debt, in order to substitute them for two other millions of similar debt, which it had contracted to sell, or had sold in Europe, and which the Secretary of the Treasury claimed the right of redeeming. The facts on this subject, and the views of the transaction entertained by the committee, have already been given.

II. In not requiring the fulfilment of the engagement made by the stockholders on subscribing, to pay the 2d and 3d instalments on the stock, in coin and funded debt. The facts on this point are fully before the house, and they establish beyond all doubt, 1st, that the Directors of the Bank agreed to receive and did receive what they deemed an equivalent for coin, in checks upon, and the notes of the Bank and other Banks supposed to pay specie. This substitution of any equivalent whatever, for the specific things required by the charter, was in itself a departure from its provisions; but, 2d, the notes and checks thus received were not, in all cases, equivalent to coin, because there was not specie to meet them in the bank; 3d, that notes of individuals were discounted and taken in lieu of the coin part of the 2d instalment, by virtue of a resolution for that purpose, passed before that instalment became due; 4th, that the notes of individuals were taken in many instances and to large amounts in lieu of the whole of the 2d and 3d instalments, which notes are yet unpaid.

III. In paying dividends to stockholders who had not completed their instalments, the provisions of the charter in that respect were violated.

IV. By the judges of the first and second election allowing many persons to give more than thirty votes each, under the pretence of their being attorneys for persons in whose names shares then stood, when those judges, the directors and officers of the bank, perfectly well knew that those shares really belonged to the persons offering to vote upon them as attorneys. The facts in respect of this violation are in possession of the house, and establish it beyond the reach of doubt.

The committee are of opinion that no other instance of a violation of the charter has been established. In closing this report of a most laborious investigation, the committee observe, that whatever difference of opinion can exist among them as to the results and inferences to be drawn from the facts stated, they unanimously concur in giving, to the preceding statements of facts and abstracts of documents, their sanction. They have not recommended the adoption of any measures to correct the many evils and mischiefs they have depicted, excepting that of the bill before mentioned, because, by the provisions of the charter, the Secretary of the Treasury has full power to apply a prompt and adequate remedy, whenever the situation of the bank shall require it. And if, after the stockholders have become acquainted with the mismanagement of the institution, they shall adopt no means to prevent its continuance, or the directors themselves shall persist in a course of conduct requiring correction, the committee cannot entertain a doubt that the salutary power lodged in the Treasury Department will be exerted, as occasion may require, and with reference to the best interest of the United States."

From Europe.—Late London and Paris dates have been received.—The late queen of England was interred on the 2d Dec. at Windsor. The Court of France was ordered to wear mourning for 21 days in consequence of the death of the queen of England.—The London papers speak of the commercial embarrassments of this country, and the sudden fall of the United States Bank Stock; they give the quotation at 111 with astonishment.

BY THE ABOVE SCALE,

It will be seen that on an investment of FIVE DOLLARS ONLY, by purchasing as small as a Twentieth Ticket, the handsome sum of TWELVE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS may be obtained, and in the worst event, should an adventurer draw a Blank, what is his loss?—the trifling amount of a Five Dollar Note.—Extend the investment even to the also small sum of Twenty Dollars, and if fortunate it will produce the amount of FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS—surely the risk is not to be looked at, in comparison with the splendid independence which may result from the trial.—In order to accommodate adventurers of every class, Shares of all the above denominations have been expressly engraved for purchasers at Cohen's Office, so that every one may go to the extent he may think proper, from the amount of a Twentieth up to the full price of a Whole Ticket, which may yield the MAMMOTH CAPITAL OF

Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars !!

The greatest attention will be paid to ALL Orders. (for Whole Tickets or for the smallest Share) and to accommodate adventurers who may prefer Shares, their Orders will be supplied at the same proportion as the Whole Tickets, without any additional charge.—Address to
